

Forest Order No. 05-15-51-22-18
Sierra National Forest
Oak Fire Closure
Exhibit B

The boundary of the Oak Fire Closure Area begins at the intersection of California Highway 140 and its boundary between the Sierra National Forest and the Bureau of Land Management, then continues east along the south side of California Highway 140 to its intersection with the South Fork of the Merced River, then continues southeast along the south side of the South Fork of the Merced River to its intersection with the Forest Boundary Line, then continues south then east then south then east then south then east then south then east then south along the Forest Boundary Line to its intersection with Chowchilla Mountain Road, then continues southwest along the northside of Chowchilla Mountain Road to its intersection with East Westfall Road, then continues northwest along the north side of East Westfall Road to its intersection with the Forest Boundary Line, then continues north then west then south then west then north then west then north then west then north back to the starting point at California highway 140 and its boundary between the Sierra National Forest and the Bureau of Land Management.