Fire

The Flat Fire has burned 27,577 acres and is 14% contained. Over the past two days there has been 2,005 acres burned inside containment lines. Conditions are favorable for moderate fire activity today and additional smoke production. For more fire information, see: https://inciweb.nwcg.gov.

Smoke

Overnight smoke from fires in SW Oregon resulted in light surface impacts in the south and east of the outlook zone, while all areas observed smoke aloft. Today coastal communities from Gold Beach down to Crescent City are expected to have GOOD air quality with MODERATE conditions possible around midday. Smoky skies aloft will continue. Agness and areas closer to the fire should have higher smoke impacts in the morning, clearing by midday. The Cave Junction region is forecast to observe higher smoke impacts with possible UNHEALTHY FOR SENSITIVE GROUPS in the evening and overnight hours. Communities further to the East are expected to see light surface smoke impacts with smoke visible aloft.
