CURRENT SITUATION

Situation Summary: On Tuesday, January 7th, 2025 at 6:18PM fire fighters responded to a fire reported near Eaton Canyon in Pasadena, California. Crews fought aggressively throughout the evening and were challenged by extreme weather and fire behavior. A number of evacuation orders and warnings have been issued for the effected area. Resources are currently operating in difficult to access terrain and extreme wind speeds present rapidly changing operational conditions. A Red Flag Warning remains in effect for the area over the fire until 6PM Thursday. A High Wind Watch is in effect until 6pm this evening. There have been reports that a number of structures have been damaged and destroyed. However, accurate counts have not been confirmed during initial attack. Damage Inspection Specialists have been ordered to assess the area. The Los Angeles County Fire Department is in unified command with Angeles National Forest, Pasadena Fire Department, & The Los Angeles County Sheriffs Department.
